

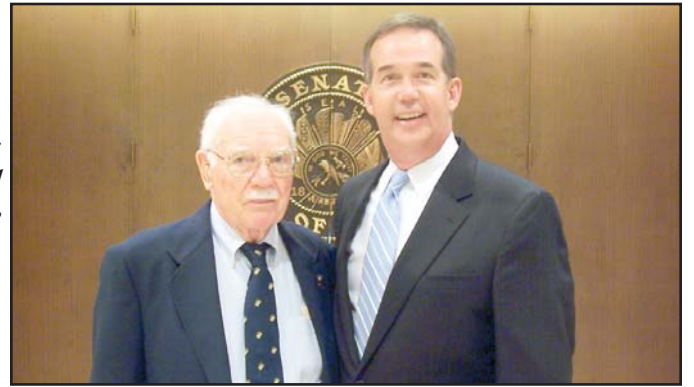

Photo Highlights from the

There's a new sheriff in town!

Dean of the Florida Lobbying Corps Ed Hoffman and Senate President Jeff Atwater.

(L-R): Southwest Florida PBA Chapter President Mick McHale, Palm Beach County PBA's John McGuire, President John Kazanjian, and Executive Director Ernie George discuss strategy during session.

PBA Executive Director David Murrell discusses Bill of Rights support with Representative Ron Saunders, incoming House Minority Leader.

PBA Lobbyists David Murrell, Jim Spearing, and Ed Hoffman discuss strategy on Bill of Rights prior to committee meeting.

Dade County PBA's President John Rivera, Executive Director Blanca Greenwood, and Director of Public Relations Stephanie Womble craft an editorial response on behalf of the Bill of Rights.

Senator Charlie Justice (right) is lobbied by PBA's Lobbyist Gary Bradford and Executive Director David Murrell in support of the Bill of Rights prior to the Senate Floor vote.

Identical twins David Murrell and Sgt. Tommy Hunt discuss who's hosting Christmas this year. (We're joking; they're not related.)

"You are going to have to learn to defend yourselves," declares PBA President John Rivera during a statewide press conference opposing legislative budget cuts to public safety officers' salaries.

Representative Maria Sachs implores the legislature to fully fund public safety.

Representative Julio Robaina reminds the public that he is sponsoring legislation to keep public safety fully funded in these difficult economic times.

Representative Janet Adkins calls on every member of the public to support full funding for public safety.

With the news media watching, PBA President John Rivera sifts through budget amendments related to public safety.

Let Don Speak! Let Don Speak! Before a packed crowd, PBA Lobbyist Don Teems calls the workers' compensation legislation blatantly unfair and irresponsible during committee.

